Motor Vehicle Power of Attorney/Odometer Disclosure – Form 82995

Form 82995- Secure Power of Attorney

Use this form when the title is lost, the title is being held by a lienholder, or it is being held electronically and remaining electronic.

Part A is completed by the owner to the dealership. The owner discloses the odometer reading to the dealership. The owner is giving the dealership Power of Attorney to execute the title when it becomes available.

Part C is completed by a representative of the dealership when the title is received, The person who completes Part C must be the person who executes the title.

Part B can be completed if the car is sold before the title becomes available. In Part B, the dealership (now the seller) discloses the odometer to the purchaser (the customer).

The representative from the dealership who signs in Part A, B, & C does not need to be the same person, but the representative that signs Part C must be the one to transfer information over to the title and sign as Power of Attorney.
